

SAM RHOTON
ATTORNEY

Professional Summary:

Mr. Rhoton provides legal counsel to construction industry clients nationwide, with an emphasis on complex construction claims. His practice involves all stages of litigation, including claim review and development, alternate dispute resolution and trial, and appeals. Mr. Rhoton has spent many years working for both trial and appellate judges across state and federal judiciaries. As a result, Mr. Rhoton deeply understands how judges think through and resolve cases, and he leverages this experience to deliver excellent results for his clients.

Admitted:

- 2023, Colorado

Education:

- Law School: University of Denver Sturm College of Law, J.D., 2023
— Denver Law Review—Senior Articles Editor, Executive and Management Committee
- College: University of Colorado Boulder, B.A., 2017, with distinction

Judicial Experience:

- Appellate Law Clerk for the Honorable Stephanie E. Dunn, Colorado Court of Appeals, 2023 – 2025
- Judicial Intern for the Honorable Kristen L. Mix (ret.), United States District Court for the District of Colorado, 2022

Professional Associations:

- Colorado Bar Association
- William E. Doyle Inn of Court

